PRESENTATION DESCRIPTION

An update will be provided on Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) Rulemakings and Programs, including the following:

- Under 21 Military Pilot Program
- Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse
- Entry Level Driver Training
- National Registry of Certified Medical Examiners
- U.S. Custom Harvesters
- Employer Notification System

There will also be time for questions and discussion.

SPEAKER(S)

Nikki McDavid, Chief of the Commercial Driver's License (CDL) Division, Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration

Nicole "Nikki" McDavid is the Chief of the Commercial Driver's License Division at the U.S. Department of Transportation's Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration. She is responsible for improving highway safety by ensuring that drivers of large trucks and buses are qualified to operate those vehicles and by removing unsafe and unqualified drivers from the highways. Her office does this by developing, administering, and implementing policies, standards, procedures, and guidelines for the National CDL Program.

Nikki was awarded her Master of Business Administration and Master of Science in Management from the University of Maryland.

TARGET AUDIENCE

State Commercial Driver Licensing (CDL) agencies, state and federal commercial vehicle law enforcement agencies, representatives from the commercial vehicle industry, and university researchers interested in studying commercial vehicle safety or CDL compliance.
